EVENT DESCRIPTION: We invite you to the Walk to End Gun Violence. We walk in honor of Dominic Davis, an 11-year-old shot and killed in the West End. The event will commence with a walk through the West End, symbolizing our united stand against gun violence. This will be followed by a town hall and community dialogue event. In the spirit of community solidarity and healing, the day will conclude with a Concert for Peace at Ezzard Charles Park. Alongside the concert, there will be food trucks and booths from local non-profits, offering resources and information to families and youth. These activities are aimed at encouraging alternatives to gangs and gang violence, reinforcing our collective commitment to a safer, more hopeful future for our community.
