STATEMENT

The 2021 Climate Equity Indicators Report serves as a model for understanding the environmental difficulties of all 52 neighborhoods and still serves as a powerful reference for administrative and council actions for the past 5 years. However, the data is 5 years old and requires a much needed, update.

The Green Cincinnati Plan since 2008 has been revised every 5 years and now the Climate Equity Indicators have reached its 5-year point. The refresh of this report aims to provide stronger and more up-to-date data to inform legislative and administrative actions and to track the effectiveness of policies passed over the past 5 years.
