

RESOLUTION NO. 21 - 2024

RECOGNIZING P. Ann Everson-Price and EXPRESSING the appreciation of the Mayor and Council of the City of Cincinnati for her outstanding career in media and community support in Cincinnati and abroad.

WHEREAS, P. Ann Everson-Price is a forty-year veteran media and television personality who represents the “Queen City” of Cincinnati, Ohio; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Everson-Price is also a business owner, actress, entertainer, mentor, public speaker, choir director, as well as a life/personal coach; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Everson-Price is an ordained minister at the House of Joy Christian Ministries, where she utilizes her talents to uplift our community; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Everson-Price is a funeral celebrant for J.C. Battle & Sons Funeral Homes, comforting people through music and kind words; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Everson-Price has served as a mentor to over seventy young voices as the Director of the Cincinnati Super Choir, which has had the honor of working in collaboration with the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra, the Anthony Munoz Foundation, the Cincinnati Ballet, and the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. celebration and President Barack Obama in 2008; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Everson-Price is part of the “Artist on Tour Program” taking music to thousands of students in schools throughout Ohio, Kentucky, and Indiana as part of her “Jazz to Motown” musical presentations; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Everson-Price and the All-Star Band have performed three consecutive years for Cincinnati’s Black Music Walk of Fame celebration; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Everson-Price changed history as the first African-American female to host a midday gospel show, on Cincinnati’s own WCIN radio station; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Everson-Price has a forthcoming book called “Miracles...How I Almost Missed Them!”, discussing her legendary career and legacy; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Everson-Price has held theatrical roles off-Broadway with mega-producer Donald Lawrence, and national tours with co-stars Peabo Bryson and Ann Nesby, including multiple tours in Japan; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Everson-Price is a devoted wife, mother of three children, and “Nanna” to eight beautiful grandchildren and three wonderful great-grandbabies, she also values “all people” and is no stranger to struggling or hard work; and

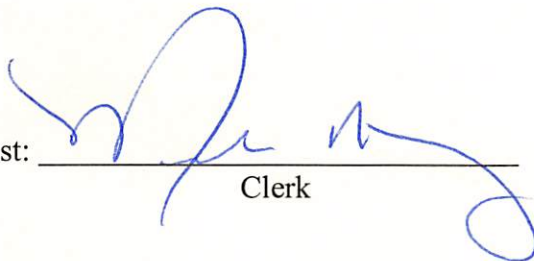

WHEREAS, Mrs. Everson-Price is truly the “Queen of Gospel Radio,” a stellar example of perseverance, endurance, and excellence in all that she does for the City of Cincinnati, and we celebrate forty years of broadcasting with her today; now, therefore,

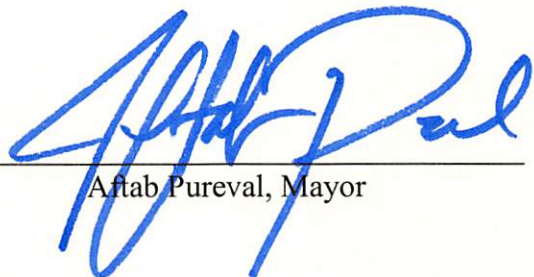

BE IT RESOLVED by the Council of the City of Cincinnati, State of Ohio:

Section 1. That the Mayor and this Council hereby recognize P. Ann Everson-Price and express the appreciation of the Mayor and Council for her outstanding career in media and community support in Cincinnati and abroad.

Section 2. That this resolution be spread upon the minutes of Council and that a copy be provided to P. Ann Everson-Price through the office of Vice Mayor Jan-Michele Lemon Kearney.
