MOTION

WE MOVE for City Council to allocate $5 million from the American Rescue Plan Act to fully enact the Collaborative Agreement Refresh with a focus on reform, accountability, timely case investigations, policy review, data analysis, recommendations, employee tracking, records management, and mediation.

STATEMENT

The Citizens Complaint Authority has significant responsibilities, both under law, and to our community. This includes timely investigations of serious police interventions and citizen complaints of police misconduct, policy review, analysis, and recommendations, as well as data analysis, problem solving and mediation, community engagement, and annual reporting requirements.
